Prospective students are invited to attend an Open House event. Each event is from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. on a Saturday morning. Students will have the opportunity to learn about each of the College's programs from College faculty. Current students, faculty, and staff will be available to answer questions. During the Open House, prospective students will tour the workshops and classrooms at the College's Old City Jail Campus in historic downtown Charleston, and enjoy lunch in the Jail courtyard.

Advance reservations are required.
